“A truly great book should be read in youth, again in maturity, and once more in old age, as a fine building should be seen by morning light, at noon and by moonlight.”

~Robertson Davies~

Here's your opportunity to read three great books for the first time. If you would rather tackle a longer book (400 pages or more), we encourage you to do so. In the event you do read one of the longer selections, (marked with *), you only need to read two books. (P)=Play (B)=Biography

We will ask you to write about them early in the fall, so you would be wise to purchase the books you choose in order to review them before September. Savor your summer and the reading! This list may be found at gmws.org under Student Resources.
